

Year 6 Homework: Creative Challenge for Families!

This term we would like each child to create a 3D model, based on our learning about the Victorians!

This could be a historic mode of transport or a building from the past.

Creative projects will be due in on Monday 22nd October.