

Year 4 Home Learning Term 2

This term your creative home learning project is to create a 3D model based on water. It could be to do with the water cycle, how water is used for leisure or for power or anything else you can think of!

